Around The Fashion World In 80 Pages

words_safia siad

GUaranteed, you would not want to leave the beautifully chic white and jagged edge pages until you reach page 420, but you get the point.

Phaidon's "Sample" (June, 2005) boasts just that; a sampling of one hundred fashion designers from across the globe. Handpicked by ten of the fashion world's most elite designers, curators, writers and stylists, these designers are the new and emerging talent to look out for.

Showcasing ad campaigns, unreleased sketches and backstage photographs, you could spend hours browsing through the glossy fabulousness that is this unique reference tool for the couture conscious!

Personal favourites: Check out Alice Temperly's romantic chiffon and silk crepe dresses while you're in London. Then jet over to Antwerp and visit Christian Wijnants' funky, bright and unique collection reminiscent of everything good in the early eighties.

Thank you for flying Conscious Media and we hope you had a pleasant trip!
